Saturday October 29, 2005 6:30 until 10:30 PM

This is one of the City's hidden treasures

Rick Kogan, Chicago Tribune Magazine/WGN-Radio AM 720

Dinner will be served in Polo Cafe's handsomely renovated Old Eagle Private Room, built in 1914 as The Eagle Theatre, which often hosts special events. A copper top bar, handcrafted chandelier, spectacular Zhou Brothers oil painting, dramatic white decor and classy mahogany floor enhance the Old Eagle's simple elegance.

Just Southwest of the Loop in the Historic Bridgeport neighborhood, one mile west of Sox Park at 35th & the Dan Ryan (I-90/94).

HOSTED BY: Don Monte (630-222-2200) & Maureen O'Brien
