SEAFOOD ON THE MEDITERRANEAN

Tuesday, August 22, 2006

5:30 p.m. Reception

Followed by Hellenic Museum Musical Program
"Road to Rembetiko—The Popular Greek Blues"

6:30 Reception & Dinner

Louis Alexakis, General Manager of the Greek Islands, will be our host. The evening begins with a wine reception, followed by a musical program at the Hellenic Museum.

Our dinner will feature luscious seafood flown in fresh from Greece, coupled with the superb boutique wines of Greece. Considered the most popular Greek restaurant in the United States, the Greek Islands has become famous for providing authentic Greek cuisine in a warm ambience. This delicious repast will be served in the vibrantly decorated Kafenio Room, reminiscent of a sidewalk café in a Greek seaside village. OPAA!

- The Food Network's own Rachel Ray notes: "The lines bring you in, the prices keep you, but oh the food makes you come back."
- Pat Bruno says: "No invitations have been sent out, but this is a restaurant that throws a festive party every night of the week."
