Beckie Menzie and Tom Michael celebrate Valentine's Day by performing songs of "Reel Love." Songs from such movie classics as Charade, Breakfast at Tiffany's and Meet Me In St. Louis will put you in a Valentine's mood as you enjoy a romantic four-course dinner prepared by Executive Chef Virginia Benke of The Whitehall Hotel. This evening of romance, humor and heart will be highlighted by guest performances by singer Kat' Taylor and Maxim's artist in residence, the legendary Audrey Morris. Named "among the best performers in Chicago" by Rick Kogan of WGN Radio, Menzie & Michael have appeared at New York's Lincoln Center, and Carnegie Hall, Chicago's Park West, The Pritzker Stage at Millenium Park and Maxim's. They have also been featured at numerous Chicago Humanities Festival ASCAP concerts.

A star of Broadway stage, television, and cabaret, actress Kat' Taylor (left) is an "After Dark Award Winner" for Outstanding Cabaret Performer. The Chicago Tribune has acclaimed her for "her poignant, richly emotional" stage performances and Chicago Magazine named her "one of the best vocalists in the city." Jeff Award nominee Kat' Taylor (known on stage as Kathy Taylor) is one of Chicago's premier stage actresses and musical performers. From her stunning, memorable stage roles such as Fantine in the national tour of Les Miserables, or acting opposite John Mahoney in Steppenwolf Theater's production of Our Town, to her one-woman shows in concert halls and nightclubs, Kat' Taylor has captivated and excited audiences with her powerful, dynamic performances. The much admired now legendary singer pianist Audrey Morris (right) performed in such clubs as Mister Kelly's, the Embers, Yvette, and Maxim's. She sings love songs and caresses the blues with lyrical grace that leaves her many fans begging for more.
