Memories of Philippine Kitchens

Amy Besa and Romy Dorotan opened Cendrillon, their acclaimed restaurant in Manhattan's Soho district, in 1995. Both have championed the cause of Asian cooking, particularly the cooking of their native Philippines. Chef Dorotan's cooking has been featured in and praised by Gourmet, New York magazine, the New York Times, and the Wall Street Journal.

Executive Chef Bill Kim, former chef-de-cuisine at Charlie Trotter's and sous chef at Trio, combines archetypal French techniques with traditional pan-Asian fare for a wonderful mix of new and classic dishes, reinvigorating Le Lan's menu. Le Lan: "Le" is French for "the" and "Lan" is Vietnamese for "orchid." This beautifully thoughtful name depicts the freshness and delicate balance of eastern and western food and culture, blended together, while still maintaining their identities.
