Present a "CHOICE" Evening

Monday, September 24 2007

Reception - 6:30 PM

Dinner - 7:15 PM

You are in for a real treat when you join us for a special evening at one of the hottest new restaurants in Chicago. Kurt Chenier and Shin Thompson were coworkers at Soldier Field (serving 600 people every Sunday at the Cadillac Club) when they decided to start a catering company to exploit their culinary passions. They found a cute little space on Armitage (formerly Savoy Truffle), and saw an opportunity to live their dream. Since they launched their prix fixe dinners and their Saturday Night Underground dinners, the restaurant has become a "hot ticket." The Café has been reviewed by the Sun Times ("with partner Kurt Chenier, Thompson delivers exquisitely crafted food at value prices."), 190 North and the Reader ("four-star restaurant at two-star prices"). Thompson formerly worked at 4-star Trio, under Shawn McClain, Karma and the Grand Hyatt in D.C. The food is based on classical French training and contemporary American & Japanese influences. This is a small venue. If you want to attend, please reserve early Street parking available.
