BOMBON CAFÉ
170 W Washington, Chicago

NOON, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2007
GUEST OF HONOR NANCIE McDERMOTT
AUTHOR OF SOUTHERN CAKES

Author Nancie McDermott is letting her roots show. Renowned for her recipes and writings on the cuisines and culture of Southeast Asia, where she spent three years as a Peace Corps volunteer, McDermott's latest volume is truly the frosting on her culinary cake. Ms. McDermott brings us down home to her beloved south for Southern Cakes, which layers on a luscious bounty of coconut cakes, pound cakes, jelly cakes, fruitcakes and classics like Lady Baltimore Cake, and Thirteen-layer Cake.

Nancie McDermott's books include several best sellers on Thai cooking, including "Real Thai" and "The Curry Book." Her feature stories and recipes have appeared in Bon Appétit, Cooks' Illustrated, Food and Wine, and the Chicago Tribune. Nancie lives in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, with her husband, her two daughters and her cake pans.

The BOMBON Story

The husband and wife team started out in 2001 in the Windy City, in the beautiful Pilsen neighborhood. Two chefs, Luis and Laura, one small store, pounds of passion, and a pinch of creativity and big, sweet dreams, baked slowly, became what BOMBON is today. A celebration destination, a pastry shop, where you can find delightful pastries, artistic cakes, mouthwatering cookies, and all kinds of desserts, as well as savory dishes. "We want to be the perfect finale for your small, intimate celebration or your big fiesta. Gracias!"
