Madrigal Dinner*

*Preston Bradley Hall
77 East Randolph, Chicago*

Sunday, December 16, 2007, 2:00 P.M.

An annual musical and visual celebration in the Renaissance style of Merrie Old England. A 52-year tradition for Illinois State University Madrigal singers, this presentation is the longest running event of its kind in the U.S. and celebrates its third year at the Chicago Cultural Center. Join the king, queen, court jester, and wench for a holiday feast while being serenaded by sixteen lords and ladies in full traditional costume presenting traditional holiday madrigals including "Carol of the Bells," "Wassail Song," "The Twelve Days of Christmas" and more!

Special thanks to Judith Hines & Brad Thacker,
