A FEAST OF AWARD WINNING DISHES FROM CHEF MICHAEL

Le Titi De Paris is renowned for its excellence in French cuisine and expert service. This excellence is a key element of its enduring reputation. But legacies are meant to be handed down. When the restaurant's founders Chef Pierre and Judith Pollin retired, they had to look no farther than their own kitchen for an heir to their legacy. In July 2004 the torch passed to Pierre's longtime executive chef Michael Maddox and Michael's wife Susan.

Pierre and Michael's work together earned them numerous accolades and awards, including AAA Four Diamond Award, the DiRona Distinguished Restaurants of North America Award since 1992, Wine Spectator's "Best of" Award of Excellence, Nation's Restaurant News Fine Dining Hall of Fame, and 3½ stars by both Chicago Tribune's Phil Vettel and the Sun-Times dining critic Pat Bruno. Chef Michael continues the tradition, piling award upon award for his outstanding culinary inventiveness and talents!
