TASTE: A LIFE IN WINE is a new memoir written by Anthony Terlato "one of the most accomplished wine personalities on the planet," according to the San Francisco Chronicle.

Tony's fifty-year career in the wine-trade—from his father's liquor store on the North Side of Chicago to chairmanship of the globe-spanning Terlato Wine Group—helped transform American attitudes toward wine.

Anthony Terlato is chairman of Terlato Wines International and Terlato Wine Group. He is the recipient of numerous awards, including Wine Enthusiast's 2002 Man of the Year Award and Wine Spectator's Distinguished Service Award in 2004.

Join us as we visit Tangley Oaks, headquarters for Terlato Wines International and Terlato Wine Group. Tours of the mansion will be provided throughout the evening. Built by Philip Armour in 1932, Tangley Oaks is said to be one of the finest reproductions of Tudor Gothic Manor Homes in America. Acquired by the Terlato family and refurbished in 1995, it is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
