DINNER AT LES NOMADES

Wednesday, June 3, 2009

6 P.M. Wine Reception 6:30 P.M. Dinner

Les Nomades. A fresh expression of French cuisine. Located just east of Michigan Avenue, Les Nomades is an elegant, inviting upscale bistro reminiscent of Paris, in golden hues, with art deco lighting, Lalique vases with fresh flowers in profusion, Miro-bedecked walls and wood-burning fireplaces.

Chef Chris Nugent is at the helm of this ever-current Chicago dining institution's kitchen, and receives rave reviews. Owner Mary Beth Liccioni inherited high standards from Les Nomades' founder who originally established it as a private dining club. Since 1993, this jewel box of a brownstone thankfully has been open to the public. Chicago magazine said that the owners "have polished these quiet, chic salons into one of the finest restaurants in the city."

Chef Nugent will prepare an elegant menu from the best and freshest products available at market that day (often at Green City Market). Mary Beth has paired just the right wines to accompany the chef's creations.
