Kristine Subido, Executive Chef,
Wave Restaurant, Chicago

Although she once considered a career in professional dance, Chef Subido chose to make her moves in the kitchen, gaining her formal culinary training at Kendall College, and apprenticing under Chicago chef Steve Chiapetti at several Chicago locations, and in Lyon, France at Paul Bocuse's Le Sud. She is now earning critical accolades for her international cooking as the executive Chef at Wave, where she also gives cooking classes for the public.

Chef Subido, who recently returned from a visit to her native country, will share her early memories of life in the Philippines and describe her family of food lovers and their specialties. She will also discuss regional food differences, and how Filipino food may be poised to cross over in America like Thai, Indian, Chinese.

Chef Subido's Filipino Menu Paired with Wines
