A Tavola with Nicola!

Monday, May 10, 2010 at 6:30 P.M.

Guest of Honor
Winemaker Nicola Biscardo

I was born in Verona on January 12th, 1972 in a family of wine makers. Raised in the land of Amarone I took my first wine class at the age of nineteen while I was studying Political Science at the college.

It did not take me long to realize that my way was to continue in the family business of selling wine, so I switched to wine studies and I attended the master at the Italian Association of the Guild of Sommeliers. Now I am a professional Wine Taster, a Sommelier, a member of The Society of Wine Educators and not a politician.

I moved to United States in 1997 and I lived in New York to market and organize the distribution of Conexport, a private consortium that represents some of the best small producers from different wine regions of Italy.

Now I am back home in Verona, the city of "Romeo and Juliet" to spoil my vineyards and olive trees with my love and passion!!!
Alla Salute!
