French Comfort Foods
Paired with wines

Lea is a modern, stylish French inspired café located on Marion Street in the heart of Oak Park. Nicolas Caulliez and co-owner Colleen Wagner wanted to create fresh, healthy meals for their children and neighbors. So they chose the comfort foods found in the street cafes of Paris. Opened in May 2017, they began with serving breakfast and lunch, and recently began offering dinner.

Dinner is what Chef Nicolas has planned for Chicago Gourmets. He uses traditional recipes, but adapts them so he can source local, artisanal ingredients. The greens from Metropolitan Farms greenhouse and meats from Gunthorp Farms, for example.

The delicious smell of French baguettes and pastries are part of the treat of enjoying a meal at Lea. Nicholas makes tartes, breads and pastries new every day with no preservatives.

Fresh, local, delicious and modern French comfort food is the dinner Chicago Gourmets will enjoy at Lea. The dinner is open to members and non-members. Start your holiday enjoyment with us, and join us for dinner December 9.
